

August1

Scenario

On November 8, 1887, in a sanitarium in Glenwood Springs, Colorado, John Henry "Doc" Holliday died of 'consumption'. His last words were:

R1 R2 R3

P1 P2 P3

S1 S2

S3 S4

Horse

Loading
Table

Unloading
Table

- P Pistols 5 rounds loaded in each, in holsters, with hammer down on empty chamber.
- R Rifle 10 rounds loaded with hammer down on empty chamber.
- S Shotgun 4+ rounds, staged on horse, with action open and empty.

Start by the horse with rifle at cowboy port arms. When ready say the line:

This is funny.

At the buzzer, engage the rifle targets in a Delta Glen sweep. P1 P2 P2 P3 P2 P2 P1 P2 P2 P3

Place rifle on horse with action open and empty.

Draw pistols and engage the pistol targets in a Delta Glen sweep.

R1 R2 R2 R3 R2 R2 R1 R2 R2 R3 Reholster.

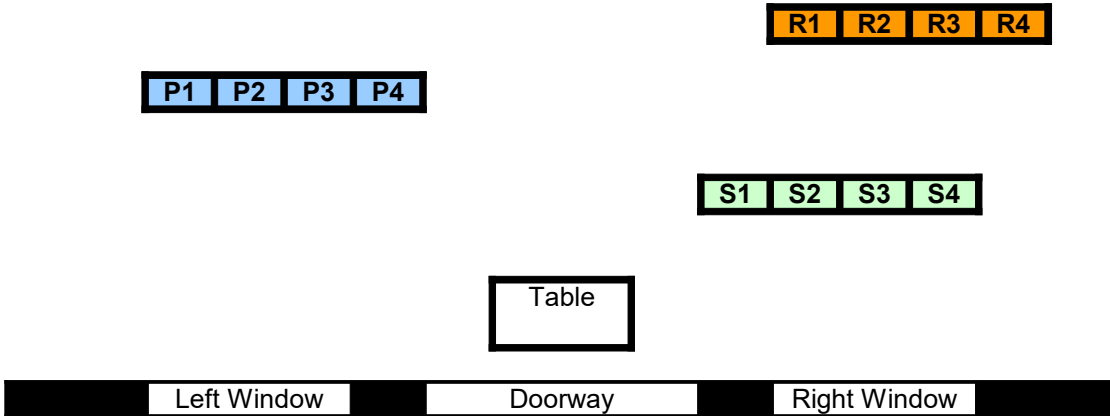

From the horse, pick up shotgun and knockdown the shotgun targets in any order.

Collect guns, proceed to the unloading table, and show clear.

August2

Scenario

George Maledon was the 'Prince of the Hangmen'. He was the executioner for "Hangin' Judge" Isaac C. Parker in Fort Smith, Arkansas. A reporter once asked George if he was afraid the ghosts of folks he'd hung would come back to haunt him. George said:

Loading
Table

Unloading
Table

P

Pistols 10 rounds loaded, in holsters, with hammer down on empty chamber.

R

Rifle 10 rounds loaded, staged on table in doorway, with hammer down on empty chamber

S

Shotgun 4+ rounds, staged in right window, with action open and empty.

Starting at the left window, holding noose in both hands; shoulder level or higher. When ready say the line:

Nope. I figure I hung them too.

At the buzzer, drop the noose and engage pistol targets in a Cactus Buck sweep.

P1 P1 P1 P2 P2 P3 P3 P4 P4 P4 Reholster.

Move to doorway, pick up rifle and engage the rifle targets in a Cactus Buck sweep.

R1 R1 R1 R2 R2 R3 R3 R4 R4 R4. Restage rifle, open and empty, on table.

Move to right window and engage the shotgun targets in any order; must go down.

Collect guns, proceed to unloading table, and show clear.

August3

Scenario

In 1888, General Crook's command is chasing down Geronimo's Apache band in Arizona. While crossing open desert, an Army patrol suddenly encounters an Apache warrior who has jumped up on distant knoll, dropped his loincloth, 'mooned' the troop and started hurling insults. The contract hunter with his buffalo rifle is called to the head of the column and told to silence the 'impertinent savage'. When the Apache shouts: "To hell with the Army", the hunter shouldered his Sharps. When the Apache shouts: "To hell with General Crook", the hunter cocks his weapon and draws a bead. When the Apache yells: "To hell with President Cleveland", the hunter turns to the officer and says:

R1 R2 R3 R4 R5

P1 P2 P3 P4 P5

S1 S2

Table
Position 3

Position 2

Position 1

Loading
Table

Unloading
Table

- P Pistols 10 rounds loaded, in holsters, with hammer down on empty chamber.
- R Rifle 10 rounds loaded with hammer down on empty chamber
- S Shotgun 2+ rounds, staged on table, with action open and empty.

From position 1, with rifle held at cowboy low-ready, indicate ready by saying line:

Ah kain't shoot no fella' Republican.

At the buzzer, engage rifle targets with a Double Tap sweep in either direction. Move to position 2 while staging the rifle, open and empty, on the table.

Engage pistol targets with a Double tap sweep in either direction. Reholster, pick up shotgun at position 3.

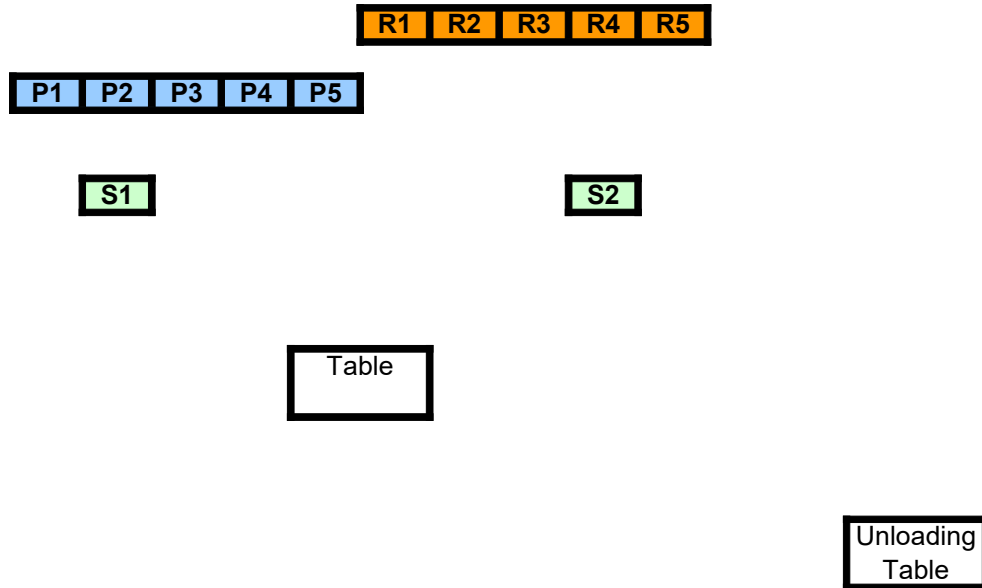

Engage shotgun targets, any order, must go down.

Collect guns, proceed to unloading table, and show clear.

August4

Scenario

Hop Tu-now was known as the best boss coolie on any railroad. With the Irish violently on strike, his coolie gang was brought in to finish the trestle. Hop had been bossin' coolies for years and his faculties were starting to fade. That morning, he'd been inspecting the trestle before the rest of his gang had showed. He noticed a strange object at the bottom of the central bent and went down to inspect. As he picked up the object, his last words were:

- P Pistols 10 rounds loaded, in holsters, with hammer down on empty chamber.
- R Rifle 10 rounds loaded with hammer down on empty chamber and staged on table.
- S Shotgun 4+ rounds, staged on table, with action open and empty.

From the table, holding the stick of dynamite in both hands, indicate ready by saying line:

Oh! Reeree biiiig firecrackee!

At the buzzer, drop dynamite on table and engage pistol targets with a 2 Left-to-Right sweeps. Reholster.

Pick up rifle and engage rifle targets with 2 Left-to-Right sweeps. Restage rifle, open and empty, on table.

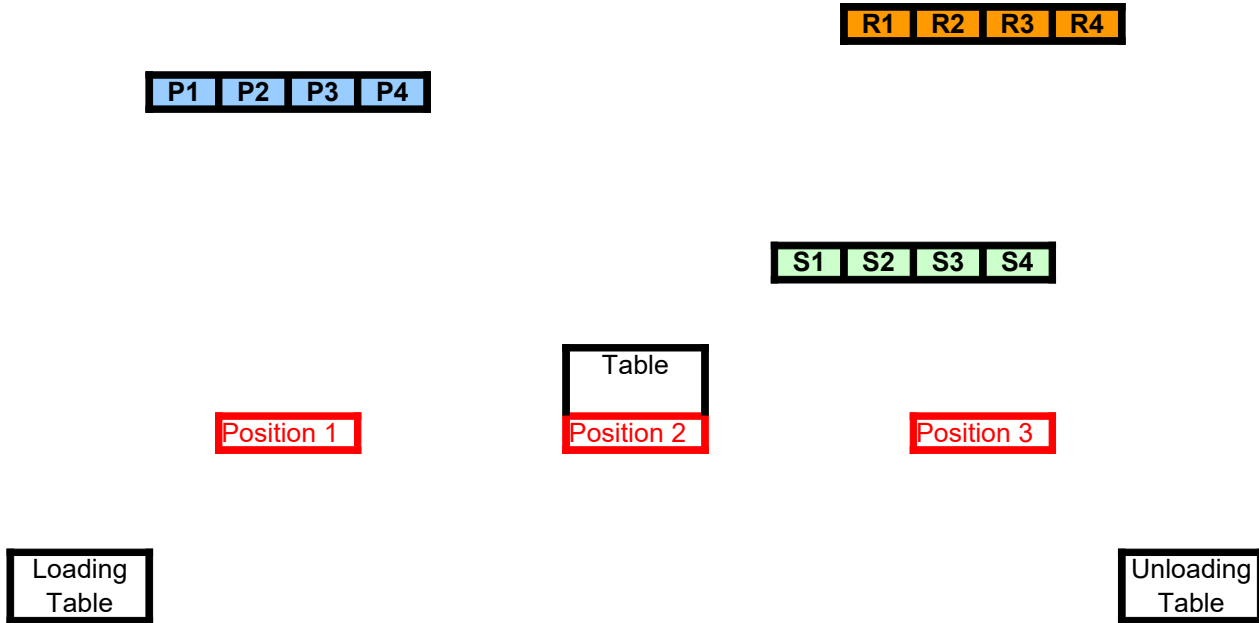

Pick up shotgun and engage shotgun targets S1 S2 S1 S2.

Collect guns, proceed to unloading table, and show clear.

08/05/23

Scenario

The McKaskil Family, headed to their new home in Montana, had been dogged by Doc Shabit and his gang from the time they left the plains. Fortunately, they had a guardian angel in mountain man Con Vallian. Duncan McKaskil didn't seem to grasp the danger he was in until Vallian finally laid it on the line and told him:

- P Pistols 10 rounds loaded, in holsters, with hammer down on empty chamber.
- R Rifle 10 rounds loaded with hammer down on empty chamber staged on table.
- S Shotgun 4+ rounds, staged on table, with action open and empty.

From position 1, with hands on guns, indicate ready by saying line:

The meek ain't gonna inherit nuthin' west o' Chicago.

At the buzzer, engage pistol targets with an Arizona sweep. P1 P2 P2 P3 P3 P3 P4 P4 P4 P4.
Reholster and move to position 2 and pick up rifle.

Engage rifle targets with an Arizona sweep. R1 R2 R2 R3 R3 R3 R4 R4 R4 R4.
Restage rifle, open and empty, on the table. Pick up shotgun and move to position 3.

Engage shotgun targets, any order, must go down.

Collect guns, proceed to unloading table, and show clear.